

Disability Awareness Stations Follow Up Activity: Journal Prompts for Interacting Among People with Disabilities

After experiencing the disability awareness learning stations, think about what it may be like if YOU had a disability. Start with one of the following ideas and write about it – or start with your own observation or insight.

- One thing I wish people knew about me is...
- An advantage of my disability
- Something I would invent to make my life easier
- My biggest frustration
- _____ changed my life
- If I could be without my disability for one day I would...
